

David Boivin

June 4, 2013

David Leo Boivin of Brookline NH passed away on June 4 surrounded by his family after a long illness.

David was born on September 11, 1951 in Ludlow Mass to Leo & Cecile (Fisher) Boivin and lived most of his life in Indian Orchard, Mass. He graduated from Cardinal Farley Military Academy in 1969.

He proudly served his country in the US Air Force. David enjoyed hunting, fishing, boating, snowmobiling and cooking. He was famous for his fish fries that he shared with family and friends. He worked for R.E. Phelon for 29 years until the time of their closing. He then relocated to New Hampshire in 2006 and worked for Tympanium Electronics.

He is survived by his loving wife of 21 years, Cynthia (Baumann) Boivin who was his devoted caregiver throughout his difficult journey. David is also survived by his sons David and Robert. His presence will also be missed by his mother Cecile Boivin, his brother Richard and his wife Gail, his brother Daniel and his wife Dee as well as many nieces, nephews, extended family and friends.

He was predeceased by his father Leo Boivin.

FUNERAL NOTICE: Calling hours are Friday, June 7th from 5 to 7 p.m at Roche Funeral Home Lenox, Mass. A funeral mass will be held at 9am Saturday, June 8th at St. Anne's Church in Lenox. Burial will be held privately with family in Indian Orchard at a later date. In lieu of flowers the family requests that donations be made in David's memory to St. Anne's Church in care of the funeral home.

Comments

“ Cecil, Rick & Dan

I very sorry to hear about the passing of Dave at such a young age. I remember the great times we had growing up on Water street, fishing in the summer and ice fishing in the winter. The lemonade stand on Center street in the summer and trips to your camp on the Quaboag river. May you rest in peace Dave.

Ted Simard - December 03, 2015 at 02:50 PM