“ Dave Germain left his mark on the Alford community with a generous amount of public service and kindness that will long be remembered. In his roles as Fire Chief, Selectman, Road Superintendent and more, he was reliable, respectful, and always pleasant.

I recall two moments perhaps in the 1960s when Dave might well have been featured in a Rockwell painting. The first would be in the small kitchen of the Alford Town Hall, with Dave flipping pancakes for what would become the annual Fire Department pancake breakfast. The second was at Town Meeting when, in the midst of a debate about whether to sell the Town's antiquated road grader, Dave politely rose to his feet and advised, "Hang on to that grader; we can't afford to replace it, and nothing else will do it's job."

Late in his life, Dave's devotion to family shined on as he visited his father daily in the nursing home, and again as he cared for his wife, Martha, through her extended illness and passing in 2018.

I join so many others in celebrating Dave's life and wishing comfort to his family.
