“ To know Jane was to love Jane. When I first met Jane over 20 yrs ago, I immediately fell in love with this wonderful woman; full of life, humor and compassion. She had a memory that would rival her good friend and cousin, Jack Halpin. I loved hearing stories of when they were younger and of the changes that evolved in the beautiful community of Lenox. She will truly be missed, but we will gain comfort knowing she is reunited with her family and friend.

“ Jane's journey was completed. She touched many lives along the pathway and made a difference in each of the lives and hearts she reached out to. Closing her eyes from this world, she opened them to see the face of God. Embracing His faithful servant He welcomed her home. Her new and everlasting life now begins. Her place at the table is set and so the reunion begins. Family and friends welcome her. Jane's life has changed not ended. You now can touch the face of God, and rest peacefully and safely in His arms.

Thank you for times of laughter and friendship.
May the roads rise to meet you,
May the winds be always at your back,
May the sun shine warm upon your face.
May the rain fall soft upon your fields.
So until we meet, until we meet again
May God hold you, hold you in the palm of His hand
Rest in peace
