

Mrs Joy E Fox

November 4, 1925 - May 15, 2018

Lenox –

Joy E. Fox, 92, of Lenox died Tuesday, May 15, 2018 at home with her loving daughters by her side.

Born in Moberly, MO, on November 4, 1925 to the late William Anchitel and Ida Mae (Criss) Eldridge, she attended Moberly High School and was a 1943 graduate. After high school, Joy went to Chilicothe Business College in Denver, Colorado where she majored in Accounting. She worked as an Accountant at Sherwin Williams in Minnesota and other various bookkeeping positions.

She and her late husband, Lawrence, were married in Moberly, on October 5, 1947. They had resided in Owatonna, MN for several years and had made their home in Lenox since 1979.

Mrs. Fox was a communicant of St. Ann's Church in Lenox.

She enjoyed travelling, golfing, bridge, and garden clubs in Minnesota. She enjoyed the Berkshires, the history of cottages, and loved driving through her beautiful Berkshires.

Mrs. Fox is survived by her daughters; Sara A. Fox of Lenox, Monica L. Fox of Randolph, MA., two grandchildren, and one great grandchild.

Besides her husband and parents; Joy is pre-deceased by her son, Paul Gregory Fox and her grandchildren; Ryan C. Chevalier and Charlotte Fox.

Per Mrs. Joy E. Fox's wishes, there will be no calling hours and her services will be private. In lieu of flowers, donations in her memory may be made to Hospice Care of the Berkshires in care of the Roche Funeral Home, 120 Main Street, Lenox, MA 01240.

“ Sara, Monica and family.

We remember Joy's phone calls whenever she saw a bear in the yard. She enjoyed seeing the wild life and kept us alert. She was a great neighbor.

Best wishes to you all,

Tom and Paula Skinner

“ Hi Monica and Sarah,

I am so saddened to hear about the passing of your Mom. I am so glad I ran into you, Monica, so that I had some sense that this was coming. I will always remember your mother as a super kind yet strong woman. The kids adored her and loved running into her (not literally, though that may have happened a time or two) on the driveway, and always looked forward to the last stop on Halloween, where she would invite them all in and generously give them way too much candy.

All the best to you both,
Joe Carry
