

Mr. Leo E. Mahoney

January 4, 1930 - December 27, 2020

Leo E. Mahoney died Sunday, December 27 at Albany Medical Center as a result of a stroke. Leo attended Christmas Eve Mass and enjoyed his favorite meal at an abbreviated family celebration the night before.

Leo was born in NYC to the late Dora and William Mahoney. Soon after his family moved to Chelmsford, MA, where Leo grew up, graduating high school from Keith Academy in Lowell.

Leo was a motivated and hard working person. He put himself through college, graduating law school from Boston University: where he was initially denied entrance due to his math scores but was given a chance when he went before the Dean and graciously asked for the opportunity. Leo graduated law school in two years and at that time was the youngest to do so.

While working as an orderly at a state psychiatric hospital, he met his soon to be wife and life long partner, Peggy Bohl. They married in 1954 and settled in the Berkshires to be closer to Peggy's father. They enjoyed 68 years of marriage and were a true example of a loving union. They raised 6 children together and spent many years traveling the world. Leo was a successful insurance salesman, starting at Berkshire Life, then to McCormick & Toole. He started his own agency, LE Mahoney Insurance, which he ran until his retirement in 1995.

Leo was active in his community both civically and politically for many years. He was a devout parishioner of St. Ann's Church in Lenox. He researched and lectured on the Shroud of Turin. He loved golf and enjoyed many days with friends, here and in Naples, FL.

His beloved, Peggy, predeceased him two years earlier to the day. Their bond was such that this should be no surprise. He felt her presence on a daily basis and longed for the day he could be with her again. It gives us comfort to know this hope has been realized.

Those left to cherish Leo's memory are his children; Leo W. Mahoney of Lenox, Paul Mahoney and wife, Franki, of Naples FL,

Susan Wentworth and husband, Douglas, of Pittsfield. Lynn Pandell and husband, Rick, of Lenox and Beth Sangiovanni and her husband, Dante, of Lee. He also leaves behind 11 grandchildren and 3 great grandchildren. In addition to his wife Leo was predeceased by his son, Shawn, and a brother, William.

Leo's funeral Mass will be live streamed from St. Ann's Church in Lenox on Tuesday, December 29 at 11 am. The stream can be accessed through the St. Ann's website <https://vimeo.com/495562432>

Memorial donations may be made to St. Ann's Church in care of Roche Funeral Home, 120 Main St., Lenox, MA.

“ Dear Sue and Family,
Please accept our deepest sympathy and prayers in the loss of your dad. He always wore a warm , inviting smile. As stated he was very knowledgeable on the Shroud of Turin and spoke with such reverence about it. Memorable. He also spoke with joy and exuberance when he presented his lecture on Columbia the Elephant. We know you will hold memories close. Call on them when needed. Leo, Rest In Peace. Bet your mom and brother were there to greet him with welcoming smiles.

“ Uncle Leo and Aunt Peggy would have my brother John and I to their home in Lenox every summer for years. We loved our time with them. We could not have asked for a better Aunt and Uncle. At night before we went up to bed we would go to the living room to say goodnight. Uncle Leo would put his head down so that we could kiss his bald spot. I loved that. Such a warm loving man. He was a constant in our lives. Never forgetting us and making sure that we always knew we were part of his family. Rest In peace Uncle Leo. I will miss you.
