She married Frederick K. Bressette in Medford on August 20, 1960 and together they raised their two children at the family home in North Adams. They retired to York Beach, ME where they enjoyed many happy memories with family and friends before moving to Sagamore Beach, MA in 1998. Mr. Bressette died March 15, 2006. Mrs. Bressette returned to the Berkshires to make her home with her daughter in Middlefield several months ago. She led a life of faith and had been a communicant of Corpus Christi Parish in Sandwich.

Always a champion of the underdog, she inspired others with an unwavering commitment to show empathy and kindness in all situations and to always do the right thing, even when it was hard. Her patient kindness, infectious sense of humor, and fierce competitiveness will now live on through her grandchildren's inherited personality traits. She lived by the motto that there is always time for dessert.

“ Our sincere condolences to the Bressette Family. Chris, Noreen, Mimi, Richard, Ben, Bridgette and Georgia.

As a nearby neighbor; I was blessed to know Martha. When I would go over to see her, she would have atleast 5 art projects going. She was a very talented artist and we worked on some projects when I operated a private music and art school. Martha came in as a student and would go around and critique our drawings and paintings. We all learned so much from her. She loved Fox 25 news. One time she called me at 11:30 at night to see if I was watching Fox 25, (I had been sleeping) but stayed up to listen to her views on the news report. In quiet conversation; we would talk about religion and the Bible. We both enjoyed the book 'The Prophet' and decided to study Gilbran. We had many brunches and lunches that the Rands hosted. Fun dinners at our home with Fred and Martha.

I learned so much from Martha. I know I will never again meet someone like her. We were blessed to have known them both and they were a part of our lives. So while our hearts are sad;

I will think of the many things we did and cherish those memories.
