“ I was so sorry to read of Mae's passing. She and John, and my parents, Horace and Kay Brackett were good friends. When Mom passed away seven years ago, Mae sent me a beautiful card and enclosed an old clipping from the paper of my Mom, and shared some of her memories of their friendship. It was precious, and a reflection of the thoughtful and caring woman she has always been. Hers was a life well lived, and your family was blessed by her love and caring. I extend my sincere sympathy and will be holding you all close in my thoughts and prayers during this difficult time.
