“ The world has lost a great guy. My heart aches for his mother who is my dear godmother, Mary. I know how good he was to her, making sure she got to appointments and that things were working in her condo. He loved his sister and her family and I know Uncle Bobby will be greatly missed. I pray that fond memories and peace will fill their hearts.

“ Thinking of all of you during this season and knowing how difficult it must be. Hope you enjoy each other and your time at the house you have rented. What a great idea that Ann had. Best wishes to all in the new year.
Love, Pat

“ We send our deepest sympathy to Bobs family, and his friends at The Red Lion. He was a gentle and kind man. We always enjoyed seeing him. Our last memory of him will be wearing his new Irish green cap at work on a dare! Rest in Peace Bob.
