

Ann MacFadyen

June 16, 2013

Ann Morgan MacFadyen passed away Sunday, June 16, 2013, at Kimball Farms Nursing Care Center in Lenox.

Born Oct. 17, 1935, in Denver, Colo., Ann was 77 at the time of her death.

Ann was the daughter of Jack Henry and Joan Smith Morgan, both of Denver.

She was predeceased by her loving husband of 33 years, Donald J. MacFadyen, who died Dec. 6, 2007.

Ann is survived by her in-laws, Scott MacFadyen of Lenox, and Ken and Sandra MacFadyen of Longmeadow; a niece, Megan Sullivan of Idaho Springs, Colo., and a nephew Kenneth MacFadyen of Holliston.

Ann and Don had primary residences and many friends in Belchertown, and Springfield.

Ann was an avid reader and a tireless hunter of rare antiques. She and Don loved to gather friends and family for wonderful dinner parties where Ann held court as a world class devil's advocate. They also traveled extensively throughout Western Europe, the British Isles, South America and the USA.

FUNERAL NOTICE: Services will be private and burial at the convenience of the family.

The family offers sincere thanks and appreciation for the comfort and caring provided by the staffs of Kimball Farms Nursing Care and HospiceCare in the Berkshires.

In lieu of Flowers, donations in Ann's memory may be made to HospiceCare in the Berkshires in care of the ROCHE FUNERAL HOME, 120 Main Street, Lenox, MA 01240
