

Barbara Parisi

April 24, 2015

Barbara J. Parisi, 78, of 188 New Lenox Road, died Friday afternoon at Mount Greylock Extended Care Facility in Pittsfield. Born in Hancock, MA, May 18, 1936, the daughter of Raymond and Margaret Sweet Jones, she attended the former Williamstown High School. She was employed by the Commonwealth of Mass DMR for 15 years and later worked at Bright Concepts in Lee for 20 years, retiring several years ago. Barbara was a member of the Philadelphia Church of God. She enjoyed spending time with her loving family, reading, and taking part in Bible studies. She is survived by her children; Lisa M. Henningsen and husband, William of Lenox, Joseph Parisi and wife, Christine of Pittsfield, Robert Parisi and wife, Lorri of Stephentown, John Parisi and wife, Amber of Lenox, sisters; Dorothy Keeler of Lanesboro, Mary Rathbun and Marge Bouchillon of Pittsfield, and Ruth Lampenfeld and husband, Max of Cherryville, PA; one brother, Stephen Jones of North Adams; grandchildren; Pamela Powell and husband, Derek, Leon McCluskey, Erik Parisi and wife, Lauren, Alysia Guilbeault and husband, Jason, Corporal John Parisi, Jr., USMC, Gina Parisi, Violet and Lena Parisi, and Mykayla Grandbois and her husband, Russell; great-grandchildren; Xavier, Austin and Zabion Powell, Arianna Parisi and Erik Parisi, Jr.; step-grandchildren; Jordan and Devin Kat, Shannon Burns, and Robert O'Brien; close family friend, Ed Teti and many cherished friends, nieces, and nephews. She was predeceased by her daughter, Josephine Mary Parisi, her sister, Texanna Scherer, brothers; Walter, Raymond, David, and Robert Jones, her former husband, Joseph Parisi, and her granddaughter, Diana Lynn McCluskey. In Keeping with Barbara's wishes both the funeral service and burial will be private and at the convenience of the family. In lieu of flowers donations in her memory may be made to HospiceCare in the Berkshires in care of the ROCHE FUNERAL HOME, 120 Main St., Lenox, MA 01240.