

Mr. Bernard J. Potts

October 1, 1930 - October 5, 2012

LENOX: Bernard James Potts, 82, of 210 Main Street, died Friday morning at his home surrounded by his loving family.

Bernard was born October 1, 1930 in Pittsfield, the son of Frank M. and Mildred E. Newbery Potts.

He was educated in Pittsfield Schools and graduated from Pittsfield High School. He then attended Harts School of typing and Accounting and the International Correspondents School of Elevator Repair. He went right to work in the elevator business as a mechanic and eventually became President/Owner of Bay State Elevator, retiring in 1992.

Since retiring Ben has enjoyed spending time with his family and he had several hobbies.

He was predeceased by his wife Jacqueline Potts who died in 2000. They were married April 7, 1950.

Survivors include his sons; Michael and his wife Susan, Larri and his wife Nora, Ricki and his wife Cindi, Bernard John, and Cory and his wife Helen. He also leaves eight grandchildren and several great grandchildren.

The funeral of Mr. Bernard J. Potts of Lenox will be a private service. In lieu of flowers, contributions can be made in memory of Ben to Hospice Care of the Berkshires, in care of ROCHE FUNERAL HOME, 120 Main Street, Lenox, MA 01240.

To leave an expression of sympathy or for more information please visit www.rochefuneralhome.com

Tribute Wall

“ Dear Larri, Norie, and Lucas,

Thinking of you with much love, we send prayers for healing and new life for Mr. Potts and your whole family. We share in your sorrow and wish you love and peace.

Polly, Alan, and Cande Grieve

October 10, 2012 at 12:00 AM

“ It was with much sadness that we read about the passing of Mr. Potts. He will be remembered for his kind smile and calm mannerism. We have missed seeing him and will miss his wonderful personality. God gained an angel.

Kim and Tom Taglieri - October 06, 2012 at 12:00 AM