

Mr. Christopher Scott Trombley

October 28, 1971 - March 29, 2022

Christopher Scott Trombley, 50, of Albany, NY., died Tuesday, March 29th at Columbia Memorial Hospital after a brief illness.

He was born in Voorheesville, NY., on October 28, 1971 to the late Robert and Beverly Navin Trombley. He attended Voorheesville High School where he was a 1989 graduate.

He was a member of the Lee Congregational Church. Christopher was a man of many talents but most of all he was a man of God; as he shouted God's praise to anyone and everything who was around. Due to his passion for Christ, he would become so selfless that he would go out of his way to help people, not because he could afford to but because he wanted to help people no matter his circumstances and hardships since that's the right thing to do. He would always call it a blessing and say "That's what Jesus would do". Besides his devotion to the Lord, Christopher enjoyed spending quality time with family & friends, whether it was watching the Pittsburgh Steelers, or playing poker, video games, and board games; he just loved being around them. He was an avid lover of music and even started his own studio where he'd play and record music from his piano, keyboard, guitars, & drums. He also enjoyed listening to music from artists such as Jimi Hendrix, Journey, Def Leppard, & REO Speedwagon which led to his style of play. As he got older it was K-Love radio that caught his attention; where he would sing along from dusk till dawn, to the point where he even made some donations out of love and support for the station.

Mr. Trombley is survived by his children; Cody and Chloe Rockenstire both of NY., his Uncles William "Happy" Navin (Donna) of Pittsfield and Millard Eckert of Lee, and Aunt Patricia Navin of Ashland, MA., and many cousins.

Besides his parents, Christopher is predeceased by his brother; Robert E. Trombley.

The funeral for Mr. Christopher S. Trombley will be held on Friday, April 8, 2022 at 11:00am at the Lee Congregational Church. Burial will follow in St. Mary's Cemetery in Lee. There will be no calling hours. In lieu of flowers, please make donations payable to Roche Funeral Home to help offset funeral expenses, in care of the funeral home, 120 Main Street, Lenox, MA 01240.
