

Mr. David M. Bimbane

October 8, 1945 - May 9, 2026

David Michael Bimbane, 80, of Lenox, passed away peacefully on May 9 after a long illness, with his wife Maggie, and his grandson Gage by his side. He was at his adored summer home on Lake Ashmere. He and his wife had just celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary on April 30. Dave was born and raised in Northampton, MA. He moved to Lenox in the Berkshires with his young family to continue his career in the automotive industry. He left the dealerships behind and then, as a newly-inspired entrepreneur, he started his own computer business, Computers R Us, which he ran successfully for 28 years before retiring. Dave's caring, kindness, and patience affected all who knew him. His love of telling stories of his life, past and present, will be remembered by those who were fortunate to listen to them.

David leaves his sister, Dorothy Wilbur, of Shirley, MA, his daughter Liz Pitts (Rich) of Hatfield, MA, his sons Cory and Josh, both of Pittsfield MA, his grandchildren Garret, Taylor, and Gage, and several nephews and nieces, as well as the many friends who were considered family. He was the best husband, father, and grandfather ever. Services were private at the wishes of the family.

“ I remember the first time (in the early 90's) when Marilyn, Tracy, Corey and myself went to the lake (just girls) Perry was in Montana. Dave (also known as Hon) which we always called him from that visit on. He waited on us while we floated in the lake bringing champagne and strawberries, cheese & crackers and an assortment of goodies down to the lake so we didn't have to move. We had such a good time. Hon & Maggie and the lake was the best time. I couldn't wait to tell Al & Perry that we had to go back. I think we then went every Labor Day weekend and at least one weekend in June or July (sometimes 4th of July). Corey & Perry were very close in ages with Cory (without an e) as Mag always referred to him and Josh close in age to Perry and they all got along great. We had a large camping tent that we started using for extra sleeping space. The evenings were big dinners, lots of drinking and laughs. Sometimes being as many as 15-20 people. Perry always referred to him as honey bear and that is what she called him forever. He loved trying to get those kids off the inner-tubes on the back of his boat.

We are so thankful we got to see Hon last summer when about 25 of us descended on the lake to see Hon & Mag and the boys. Unfortunately Hon was not feeling great, but I think he loved seeing everyone. We will miss him very much. Rest in peace Hon 💕💕🙏
