

David Scott Lorette

July 14, 2014

David Scott Lorette – 1972-2014 – Left this life unexpectedly of a heart attack while in his sleep Monday July 14th. David loved this time of year when the grass is green and the fish run deep along his favorite fishing streams. In his passing- and the arts he left unfinished- the most precious are the sculpting of his two beautiful daughter's Zoe Bailey 16 and Hayley Lynn age 10 whom, he loved and cherished with all his heart. His creativity extended into nature and his ability to create art out of wood and stone. His craftsmanship was a gift that will reach its ultimate potential now in his next life. David's passion extended into cheering on the New York Giants with his longtime friend Bob Mead. He also maintained a close relationship with his very special grandparents Wallace and Orlina Demary throughout their lives. He will be deeply missed by his mother Valerie Lorette of Stockbridge as she holds close many memories from the first time they went fishing, hikes in the woods, and Universal Studio with the girls. He also leaves his partner; Cynthia May Palmer, with whom he shared a home in East Otis.

There will be no calling hours, a special honoring and send off of David on his next journey will be by invitation only. David's mother, Zoe and Hayley ask that in lieu of flowers or donations you take a moment to hug your child, grandchild, friend or walk in the woods for a moment, an hour or a day. Time waits for no one.....
