

Deborah Horgan Spring

May 12, 1954 - May 12, 2014

Deborah Horgan Spring, 60, of Providence Court, died Monday at her home.

Born in Pittsfield March 23, 1954, the daughter of Joyce Hart Horgan and the late Gerald R. Horgan, she was a 1972 graduate of Lenox Memorial High School and earned her Associates Degree in Secretarial Studies from Berkshire Community College in 1974.

Debbie was employed for twenty five years by General Electric Co., later General Dynamics, in the Human Resources Department, and most recently had worked in the same capacity for Dr. Warren J. Barry of Pittsfield.

She loved boating and swimming and spending time each summer at Lake Champlain in Vermont.

Survivors include her mother, Joyce Hart Horgan, of Lenox; one sister, Kim Marie Taglieri and her husband Tom of Pittsfield; one brother, Brian J. Horgan of Lenox; her nephew Ben Taglieri and his wife Heather; nieces Lindsay Cermack and husband Noah, and Heather Horgan and her sister Tanya Parker; Uncles Roger Hart and his wife Sandy and Ken Hart and wife Sally; her Aunt Anne Hart; and several grand-nieces and grand-nephews. She was predeceased in February by her loving companion of many years Lou Carpinello and her uncle Jerry Hart.

The funeral of Deborah Horgan Spring of Pittsfield who died May 12, 2014 will be conducted Friday, May 16, 2014 at 10 am at the ROCHE FUNERAL HOME in Lenox by the Rev. Richard Hayes, Chaplain at Hospice Care of the Berkshires. Burial will follow in St. Ann's Cemetery in Lenox. A period of visitation at the funeral home will precede the service from 9:30-10 am. In lieu of flowers donations in Debbie's memory may be to Moments House in care of the funeral home, 120 Main Street, Lenox, MA 01240.

Tribute Wall

JB

“ Debbie always could light up a room! Her bubbly personality and continuous smile left an impression on everyone she encountered. She will be missed! ”

---

Jana Bush - December 03, 2015 at 02:40 PM

DN

“ I didn't get to see Debbie at work since I worked mornings and she worked afternoons for Dr. Barry. The times we connected her bubbly personality and kind heart was very evident. She was a positive person and dedicated to her job and to her Lou. My deepest sympathy on her passing. ”

---

Diana Norton - December 03, 2015 at 02:40 PM