

Mrs. Donna Marie MacDonald

May 28, 1953 - September 27, 2025

Donna M. MacDonald, 74, of Dracut, MA., died peacefully on September 27th at Palm Springs Post Acute in Chelmsford, MA.

Donna was born in Dorchester, MA., on May 28, 1953, to the late Henry and Louise Lemire. She was a 1970 graduate of Chelmsford High School. She worked as a forklift operator for BARD before retiring in 2016.

She enjoyed spending time with family, bowling, bingo, clothes shopping with matching accessories, and filling decorative baskets of goodies for her family and friends. She was a member of TOPS and a volunteer for St. John's Catholic Church in North Chelmsford and for Helping hands.

Mrs. MacDonald married Michael T. MacDonald in Notre Dame Church on June 10, 1975.

Besides her husband Michael of Dracut, she is survived by her siblings; Elaine Hire Dayville, CT., Edward Lemire of Haleiwa, HI., Dolores Rocha of Richmond, MA., Michelle Lemire Hooksett, NH., and Margaret Leslie of Wells, ME., many nieces and nephews, her best friends and bingo buddies, Martha and Maria.

She is predeceased by her brother; Richard Lemire.

Burial will be in Oakland Cemetery in Dracut, MA at a later date to be determined. In Donna's memory pay it forward by purchasing a cup of Dunkin Donuts coffee or a bingo card for someone.

Tribute Wall

MB

“ So very sorry to hear about Donna’s passing,
I worked at Bard and Donna was always so sweet & helpful to everyone there.

Mona Bean - October 22, 2025 at 02:17 PM