“ *Carol: our heartfelt sympathy to you, Mark, Debby, grandkids and Brother Louis(PeeWee) on the death of Eddie. I had not only the pleasure of playing golf with him and his brother but watching him play ball against my brother Jim. He was a great athlete but a better person. Living across the way on Lasher Lane makes Ed's memory that much fonder for Paula and I.
Our prayers and thoughts are with you and your family.
Sincerely, Dick and Paula Rivers*

“ I had the pleasure to spend quite a bit of time with Mr. Carey during my days in Lenox. I worked with him at my dad's dealership, played softball on the dealership team with him (and my dad and Mark Carey), and got to see him as the great dad he was for Debbie & Mark, and as a grandfather for their kids. The man had an infectious smile and laugh and was simply fun to be around. As we get older and think about our lives, there are people that stand out and Ed is one of those for me. God bless his soul. RIP Ed.
