

Mrs. Elizabeth Fischer "Ibbie" Brownlow

December 20, 1933 - April 27, 2025

The world lost a kindhearted, quietly fierce, loving, generous person on April 27, 2025, her name was Elizabeth Fischer Brownlow or "Ibbie" to her friends. Ibbie was born in Danbury, CT on December 20, 1933. She graduated from Danbury High School in 1951 and the University of Pennsylvania dental hygiene program in 1953. Ibbie worked as a dental hygienist in New Fairfield and then briefly in Pittsfield, MA after marrying the love of her life, Bob Brownlow, in June 1956.

Ibbie and Bob lived for a few years in Pittsfield where Ibbie belonged to the Jaycees and was a long time communicate of Zion Lutheran Church. It was in Lenox where Bob and Ibbie found their forever home that they renovated and expanded to accommodate their 3 children and various dogs, cats and horses. Ibbie enjoyed crocheting, travel and golf but most of all caring for her family. Her children are saddened by her loss but are comforted by the knowledge that they had many years with the best Mom in the World.

Ibbie was predeceased by her husband Bob and leaves her children William and wife Karen Brownlow of Quincy MA, Jocelyn and husband Jim Kurdzionak of Lenox, MA and Kristin and husband Tom Czelusniak of Lenox, MA as well as grandchildren Lynn Pinsonneault and husband Derek, Ben and Ken Brownlow, Emily and Erin Czelusniak and great grandchildren Noah and Grace Pinsonneault. Ibbie lived for the last 4 years in the LEP unit and most recently, the Sedgewick Wing of Kimball Farm in Lenox MA. Her children would like to thank all of the employees there for their kind and loving care.

Funeral services will be private for the family.

“ To all of the Family and Friends-

Ibbie was a special, dear, unique, lovely woman, and special aunt, She will be sadly missed . She lit up a room in a quiet, but secure and present way. She was full of wisdom, and family folklore. I always found comfort and joy in speaking and sharing with her, and shall miss her dearly. Earth's loss is heaven's gain. May the support of family and friends, fond memories, and the Holy Spirit, the comforter , be with you in this difficult time.

*With love , prayers, and heartfelt sympathy,
Niece / Cousin Karen
