“ I remember the first time I saw Liz and the baby with red hair when I delivered topsoil to the house in New Lenox. I never realized at 18 that I would not only get to know that baby but Liz and the whole family. That red-haired baby is one of the closest friends I have ever had and while Liz and Bob have always been very complimentary to me for helping their son, he helped me more than I can ever say. I speak for my whole family when I say we love their whole family. Their loss makes me hurt deep inside. I don't like pictures of myself very much but I love this one. It was at Liz and Bob's Anniversary party; their 25th. I'm wearing Liz's grass skirt on my head. It was a hell of a good time and when I look at this picture I always think of that party. God Bless you Liz and your family. We will miss you.
