

Mr. Hascal O. Dodge

June 3, 1942 - August 8, 2024

Hascal Oscar Dodge, 82, of Lenox, MA., passed away on August 8, 2024, at Mount Carmel Care Center.

He was the eldest son of the late Harold O. Dodge and Mildred D. Dodge of Pittsfield. He was born in Pittsfield on June 3, 1942; educated in the Pittsfield school system and graduated from the former Monson Academy in Monson, Mass. He graduated from Norwich University in Northfield, Vermont in 1964 with a BS in Engineering. Upon graduation, he accepted a commission in the Army Corps of Engineer. He served his active duty at Fort Bliss Texas and in Vietnam with a construction battalion.

After his military service he joined his father Harold as the fourth generation in the over 100-year-old family business; Dodge Construction Company. They provided underground construction and rock blasting services in the Western Massachusetts area.

On June 3, 1972, Hascal and Jeanne Richmany were married at Saint Marks Church in Pittsfield. They and their daughter Jennifer lived in Lenox where Hascal served on the town of Lenox DPW board. He was also a member of the Pittsfield Cemetery Commission. The family construction business was sold in 1986. Hascal relocated to the Boston area and at Modern Continental Construction Co. worked on several Big Dig projects in Boston. He then worked for CDM Smith an international Engineering and construction co. retiring in 2016.

He leaves his wife, Jeanne of 52 years; his daughter; Jennifer Litherland and his son in law, Jeffrey Litherland, brother; James Dodge and his wife Michele, sister in laws; Nancy Copper and her husband Perry, and Beverly Richmany, and several nieces and nephews.

Besides his parents, Hascal is predeceased by his sister; Leslie Martindale, sister-in-law; Margaret George, and brother-in-law; Jimmy Richmany.

All services will be private. A private burial will be held at the convenience of the family in Pittsfield Cemetery.
