

Holly B. Moriarty

March 5, 2014

Holly Beth Moriarty, 62, died Wednesday evening at her home in Lanesborough. Born in Pittsfield October 17, 1951, the daughter of Pauline E. Groote Townsend and the late Howard Townsend, she was educated in the Pittsfield school system. Holly had been employed at Crane and Co. for many years and was an assistant activities director at Craneville Place in Dalton prior to her death. She loved to visit the ocean, play cards, spend time with her friends, and for many years was a friend of Bill W.'s. A strong, generous, inspiring woman, she will always be remembered and have a place in our hearts. Holly and her husband, Mark P. Moriarty, were married June 21, 1985. Besides her husband of Lanesborough and mother of Pittsfield, she is survived by two daughters; Krista and Amanda Moriarty, both of Lanesborough; one brother, John Townsend, of Pittsfield; and one sister, Laurel Larrow and her husband James, of Pittsfield. She will be especially missed by her best friends Sheila Aitken and Gladys Harvey. Besides her father she is also predeceased by her brother Howard Townsend. FUNERAL NOTICE: A memorial service celebrating the life of Mrs. Holly Beth Moriarty of Lanesborough, who died March 5, 2014, will be Monday evening, March 10, 2014, at 7 pm at the ROCHE FUNERAL HOME in Lenox with the Rev. David Hurst, Pastor of Grace Union Church in Wilbraham, presiding. Calling hours Monday at the funeral home will precede the memorial service from 4-7 pm. In lieu of flowers donations in her memory may be made to the Berkshire Humane Society in care of the funeral home, 120 Main Street, Lenox, MA

01240,