

Mr James P Sarmuk

March 17, 1952 - May 23, 2018

Lenox -

James J.P. Sarmuk, 66 of Lenox, passed away on May 23, 2018.

Jim was born in Pittsfield on, March 17, 1952, to the late, William and Frances (Gromelski) Sarmuk.

He leaves behind his sisters, Mary Ann Bauchiero (Dave) of Southington, CT, Jean Kushi (Kevin), of Pittsfield, his brother, William (Sandra) Sarmuk, of Canton, CT, and cousin Lou Oggiani (Joan), of West Stockbridge, Ma., and his Aunt Helen Oggiani, of Housatonic, Ma., also many nieces and nephews.

Jimmy was a great athlete at Windsor Mountain prep school in Lenox. He played three sports where he was coached by Jack Brennan. After graduation, he attended Central Connecticut State University in New Britain, CT. Then he worked at New Britain machine for many years. Later he moved back to Pittsfield and worked at Rising Paper.

He helped take care of his parents in their later years, and enjoyed spending time with family, he will be greatly missed.

A private memorial service will be held at a later time to celebrate his life.

Tribute Wall

MG

“ Please accept my sincere sympathy in regards to the passing of Jimmie..he was a great guy who I had multiple conversations with while he lived n lenox..we talked about sports specifically the Celtics and his time playing for jack Brennan at Windsor mountain..also our conversations focused on his brother Billy who I was friends with n the 60's and played some basketball with..Jimmie will b missed and I really enjoyed talking with him.. mark gilligan

Mark gilligan - May 25, 2018 at 07:36 AM