

Janice Edgerton

April 24, 2012

Janice Edgerton passed away suddenly April 24th at Tufts Medical Center in Boston. Born in 1925 in Hempstead, N.Y., she attended local schools and later attended Junior College. Janice enjoyed gardening and theater, and would participate in community theater productions whenever the opportunity arose. She loved her family above all else and was happiest spending time with them. She was there for everyone and her passing leaves an unfilled void. Janice is survived by her husband of 67 years, Paul Edgerton; children Paul, Carol and her husband Donn, and David; four grandchildren and two great-grandchildren. FUNERAL NOTICE: A memorial service will take place Wednesday, May 9th at 11:30 a.m. at ROCHE FUNERAL HOME in Lenox. Private burial in Franklin, NY will be at a future date.
