“ My deepest condolences to Jeanne's family and loved ones. I worked with Jeanne at Austen Riggs for many years. She was one of the best people there--always caring, never gossiped, a very genuine person who I will never forget. I am shocked that she is gone and my prayers are with all of you. She was always a special gift to everyone she encountered. Again, my deepest condolences to all.

it is with a heavy heart and much love and respect, we say goodbye to a unique woman; the best of humanity. Wayne worked with you for 18 years and felt your love for your job, its' mission, the patients, and your colleagues, showed every time he spoke to you. My time with you, mostly at work, was also, met with a smile and "what can I help you with"?. You were never too busy to help me, joke around, and laugh with me. You are so loved and you were already terribly missed, starting the day you retired. You left us too soon then and you leave us too soon, once again, but did it ,all, the way you wished, and we are so honored we knew you and had a moment to say farewell to you. Knowing you, Jeannie, has made us kinder people. You are a human, of gentle substance, who will not be forgotten. Thank you from deep in our souls. Your new journey has just begun. We love you, Wayne and Louise.

Just recently I learned of Jeanne's illness upon my return from CA. I was upset and saddened to hear this and hopeful that she would have more time, but then today the finality was there in black and white. Jeanne and I worked together at the Austen Riggs Center for a long time. She was the very best at her job--totally organized, professional, always willing to take on one more project without complaint. She had a wonderful sense of humor and a kind, kind heart. She was a fine woman, and the good things she did will always be remembered. She will be greatly missed by those who had the good fortune to know her. My sincerest condolences to her family.
