

Mrs. Jenifer Drumm Picard

August 14, 1948 - January 12, 2023

Jenifer Drumm Picard, age 74, passed away Thursday, January 12, 2023, comfortably at her home in Lenox. She was the wife of the late Raymond J. Picard.

Born in Pittsfield on August 14, 1948, Jen was the daughter of the late Ernest F. and Marie Penvenne Drumm. She graduated from Lenox High School and Johnson and Wales Jr. College. In 1972 she moved to Taunton, MA with her husband and worked as the Sales Manager for Ad-A-Day Calendar Company for 25 years, returning to Lenox to open a gift shop in 1997. After her husband passed away, Jen returned permanently to Lenox, working for the Town of Stockbridge and later for the Town of Lenox in various positions. She retired in 2015 as the Town Clerk.

Jen's passions were gardening, cooking, animals, civic responsibility, and helping others. She was a member of many local organizations and boards.

Jen leaves two brothers, Mark Drumm and his wife Cathy of Pittsfield and Raymond Drumm of Stockbridge, many nieces, nephews, and dear cousins, along with many good friends, all of whom gave great meaning to her life. She also leaves her three beloved rescue pets, Rosie, Wink, and Willow.

“ It was always a pleasure and a relief to see Jen in Town Hall because she would be kind and engaging, and would solve even the most knotty problem. We were thrilled when she moved into the neighborhood last year, and wish we'd had more dog and talking time with her. She was a real shining star of Lenox and beyond.
