

Ms. Joanne Potash

July 1, 1961 - June 13, 2024

Joanne Potash, JoJo of Lanesborough passed away at her “little” brother’s home on June 13th after a brief illness.

She was born on July 1, 1961, to the late Edward and Martha Eng Potash. JoJo enjoyed bowling and participating in the Annual Special Olympics – taking home and proud of her countless metals. Her favorite enjoyment was a juicy cheeseburger and diet coke.

Joanne is survived by her two brothers: Edward Potash (Lois) and Timothy Potash (Leslie).

All services will be private. Burial will be held in Mountain View Cemetery in Lenox. Memorial donations in Joanne’s memory may be made to either Hospice Care in the Berkshires or BFAIR of North Adams, both in care of the Roche Funeral Home, 120 Main Street, Lenox, MA 01240.

“ Sending condolences to Joanne's friends and family. It was a great pleasure to play music weekly with Joanne and the big band at BFAIR over the past few years. She inspired us to sing many classics by the Beatles and Monkees, while holding the group together on percussion.
