

Mr. John L. Sullivan III

January 22, 1959 - May 10, 2021

Johnny (Farmer John) 62, of Westfield, MA., passed away unexpectedly on May 10, 2021 after suffering a heart attack.

John was born on January 22, 1959 in Northampton, MA., to Betty Sullivan (Nanartonis) and the late John L. Sullivan, Jr. of Lenox, MA. He grew up in Lenox and attended Lenox Public Schools. John was active in Berkshire County 4-H and P.O.A. (Ponies of America) in his youth. He was a regular at the Northampton Co-op Livestock Auction weekly and traveled the country during the summer months as a Horse Show Judge.

Johnny is survived by his mother Betty of Lenox, MA., his siblings; Michael of Merrimack, NH, Linda and her husband John Powers of CT, Bill of Lenox, MA, Kelly and her husband Kent Mabry of Pittsfield, MA, and his three nephews; Curtis and Tyler Powers, and Brendan Sullivan. Johnny also leaves behind his Westfield family; Justin, Christine, and Charlie.

At a private service, Johnny was laid to rest in Mountain View Cemetery in Lenox. Memorial donations in Johnny's name may be made to Kelly Sullivan c/o Roche Funeral Home, 120 Main Street, Lenox, MA 01240, to assist with care for Johnny's animals.

Tribute Wall

“ I was so shocked to hear of John's passing. We were friends through horses when he lived in Saratoga. He was to judge a show for me in June and I was so looking forward to seeing him again. What a fun guy - always had a smile, so enthusiastic about the horses! Rest easy, John. My condolences to his family.

Barbara Ferraro - June 03, 2021 at 09:32 AM

SS

“ Our hearts go out to all of you as you go through this difficult time. Please accept our deepest condolences.

Love,
Uncle Bob and your family in South Carolina

Susan Sullivan - May 22, 2021 at 11:51 AM