“ I miss you more & more everyday! I wish God never took you away. I love you more than anyone will ever know! I will always love you! Just wish our forever was never taken away. It was way too soon. But you're still in my heart and u always will be! I try to think of our good memories, but the sadness I feel and missing you just outweighs everything right now. I just hope you are still here with me in spirit. I know you're watching over me and I know you were right there watching me change the tire on the car, cuz I had no problem doing it, so I KNOW you were right there! You taught me so many things and I'm thankful for that. I'm thankful God gave me the time we had together, even though I'm mad he took you away from me too soon. But I know you're not in pain or tired anymore. I love you so much and miss you every single day!

“ I miss you so much! Not a day or hour goes by where you're not on my mind. Life just isn't the same without you here on Earth. I only pray you're my guardian angel, watching over me. I believe you are. Just glad we spent every single day and minute together, I don't regret wasting a whole day in bed watching movies, or just talking. You helped me thru some of the toughest moments in my life and always said things would be ok, and you were always right. And if it weren't for you, I wouldn't still be going strong 🙌. I know you know what I mean. Ty for always being by my side and believing in me. Hope ur looking down and proud of the things I'm doing. I will always and forever love you. Love always, your fiancé, Jacalyn Gavin (& Fred Brown #5 Lol)
