

Linda Stringer

December 14, 2014

Linda Blasioli Stringer, 56, of 17 School St., Lenox Dale, died on Sunday, Dec. 14, 2014, at Baystate Medical Center of complications from a stroke.

Born in Pittsfield on February 27, 1958, she is the daughter of Anthony and Janet Blasioli. She grew up in Pittsfield attending local schools and graduated from Taconic High School. She later went on to attend McCann Technical in North Adams to pursue training in cosmetology, and then worked for many years as a hair stylist at Shear Design in Lenox, where she developed a loyal clientele. She later received certification as an esthetician and worked at Canyon Ranch; she was most recently employed at Cranwell Resort and Conference Center's spa.

She was an avid runner and member of Lenox Fitness Center. She enjoyed the outdoors and the ocean in particular, and she loved reading and spending time with her family. She was a devoted mother, stepmother, wife, daughter, sister and best friend. She was full of life, love and good humor for all of those in her life.

In addition to her parents, she is survived by her husband Bruce Stringer, whom she married in Pittsfield on Sept. 8, 1990. She leaves a son, Jake Stringer, and a daughter, Hanna Stringer both of Lenox Dale; two stepsons, David Stringer of Charlottesville, Va., Michael Stringer of Maysville, N.C., and a stepdaughter, Neena Stringer of Charlottesville, Va.; a brother, Anthony Blasioli of Port Orchard, Wash., and three sisters, Paula LeMire of Pittsfield, Susan Harrington of West Stockbridge, and Candace Blasioli Scussel of Pittsfield. She also leaves a large extended family, including several nieces and nephews.

A Mass of Christian Burial will be held at St. Ann's Church in Lenox on Thursday, Dec. 18, 2014 at 11:00 a.m., with burial following at Mountain View Cemetery in Lenox. There will be no calling hours.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be donated to the Lenox Dale Fire Company in Care of Roche Funeral Home.
