

Lois S. Wade

November 16, 1933 - November 16, 2014

Lois S. Wade, 81, formerly of Hyde Place in Lee, died Sunday morning at Kimball Farms Nursing Care Center in Lenox. Born in Lenox Aug. 18, 1933, the daughter of Randall and Hazel Turner Sharp, she attended Stockbridge schools and was a 1950 graduate of the former Williams High School. Mrs. Wade was a billing clerk in the accounting department at Kay-Bee Toys in Lee and later in Pittsfield, retiring in 1993. She was a member of the First congregational Church in Lee for many years. She enjoyed making crafts and participating in craft fairs throughout the area, enjoyed horses and horse racing, lighthouses, and visiting Cape Cod. Mrs. Wade is survived by her daughters, Pamela A. Naventi and her husband, Michael Naventi, Sr., of Lee and Cheryl L. Walker of Lee; sons Richard B. Wade and his wife, Laurie, and Randall R. Wade and his wife, Nancy, all of Lee, and Todd M. Wade and his wife, Dianna, of Warwick, R.I.; her sister, Eunice Mooney, of Calif.; fifteen grandchildren; and seventeen great-grandchildren. Besides her parents she was also predeceased by her brother, Alan Sharp. FUNERAL NOTICE: A memorial service celebrating the life of Lois S. Wade will be conducted Friday, Nov. 21, at 1 p.m. at the First Congregation Church of Lee by the Rev. Bill Neil, Pastor. Burial will follow in Mountain View Cemetery in Lenox. In lieu of flowers donations in her memory may be made to First Congregational Church of Lee or HospiceCare of the Berkshires, both in care of the ROCHE FUNERAL HOME, 120 Main Street, Lenox, MA 01240. Her family would like to recognize all the employees at Kimball Farms Nursing Care Center with their appreciation and gratitude for the outstanding kindness and generous care given their mother during her stay there.
