“ Ernie and Tim, we as a family were most appreciative of the friendship that our mothers had! We all had a lot of good times growing up, and at the root of those good times was the relation that our mothers had. Tiffany and I send our condolences to you both and hope that the good memories are so many that the sadness of this time gradually fades.

“ I had the pleasure of knowing Lynn. She reminded me often to slow down and enjoy the everyday joys that are found watching a blue jay, selecting a perfect apple at the grocery store, or delighting in connection. My prayers are with you.
