She enjoyed flowers, yardwork, and gardening, taking trips on the back of her husband's Harley, Traveling, and camping trips with her husband and friends. She loved and cherished time spent with friends and family, especially her grandchildren.

Mrs. Duby and her husband, John E. (Chopper) Duby, were married March 17, 2006.

Besides her husband of Lenox, she is survived by her son, William C. Colvin (Lisa) of Lenox Dale, and daughter Melissa A. Clement (Trevor) of Lenox; her sister Anne K. Flynn (Thomas); grandchildren Patrick W. Colvin and Katie Ann Colvin, and Charlie H. Clement; nephew Eammon T. Flynn and her "favorite" niece Ali Flynn. Her first husband, William H. Colvin, died May 25, 1996.

The funeral for Mrs. Marie C. Duby of Lenox will be celebrated Wednesday Morning April 21st at 10 am at St. Vincent de Paul Church by Rev. Monsignor John J. Bonzagni, Pastor. “ To Claudie’s family, I am so very sorry for your loss. Claudia was always so helpful to me when I needed “official” guidance while working as a teacher at the Cameron & Morris Schools.

She was so upbeat & friendly. Anne, I didn’t realize she was your sister. May God grant you all peace and comfort in the days ahead.

And May Claudia Rest In Peace. Amen

Sincerely,
BeckyKnox

“ i am so sad to hear of Claudie's passing. We knew one another since little children on Brown St. I was in her house as often as she was in mine. I remember her dog Queenie who chased her tail> We lost touch when I moved but I have treasured my growing up on Brown St with Michelle, Corky, and Claudie.
