

Mrs. Martha G Corbett

April 6, 1921 - November 2, 2020

Martha Grace Stuntz Corbett
1921-2020

Martha “Ginny” Corbett died on Monday, November 2, 2020 in Pittsfield, MA. She was born on April 6, 1921 in Cleveland, OH to Florence Mackenson and Herman Edward Stuntz. She spent her early years in Marinette, WI before moving to Harrisburg, PA. While working at Bell Telephone in Harrisburg during WWII, she met her future husband, John Edward Corbett. They married in 1945 upon his return from service in the war. In 1952 along with their two young sons, she joined him in Morocco where he was stationed after being recalled into service during the Korean conflict.

They moved to Emmaus, PA in 1956 where she worked as a saleswoman and volunteered with social and welfare organizations while raising their family. Later in her life, she started a successful antique and appraisal business. She was always an avid reader, bridge player, and golfer. Her wonderful sense of humor made for great storytelling and entertainment for her family and many friends.

In 2017, her last move was to Lenox, MA to live near her son John. She continued to enjoy an active life until her death.

Martha is survived by her sons, Scott Jones Corbett (Patricia) of Ellicott City, MD and John Kemble Corbett of Housatonic, MA, two grandchildren, Liza Bliss (Jonathan) and Christopher Corbett (Silvia), three great-grandsons, and six nieces. She was predeceased by her husband, her brother, Edward Mackenson Stuntz, and sister, Mary Isabel Stuntz.

“ We loved having Mr & Mrs Corbett as our neighbors for many years in Emmaus. We enjoyed visiting with Ginny and hearing her stories. Our kids still remember the day she called them over to show them a very large bird that was in her yard. She was always so kind and welcoming to all of us. We definitely miss her in Emmaus.
