Pamela Lee Boudreau (Hollingworth), of Stockbridge, MA, passed away surrounded by loved ones on Friday, April 3rd after a valiant fight against cancer. Her resilience was second to none.

Pam was born in Fort Lauderdale, Florida on May 22, 1958. She was the daughter of Walter Hollingworth Jr. and Rosetta Hollingworth. Pam graduated from Monument Mountain High School in 1976.

She began her career at Berkshire Bank and Trust in Pittsfield where she met her husband, Edward Boudreau. Pam then worked at McClelland Drug Store in Lee before caring for her mother Rosetta. She returned to work at Lee Bank where she served at the Lee, Great Barrington, and Stockbridge branches.

Pam had a huge heart, and she loved spending time with family and friends. She was a long and loyal resident of Stockbridge where she served as the President of the Stockbridge Chamber of Commerce as well as a member of the town's Finance Committee. One of her greatest joys was stewarding the stories and traditions of her beloved town.
