“ Bob and I were friends working at the Log Cabin restaurant in the summertime during our high school days. We worked hard but Bob had a knack for adding humor to almost anything including running the dishwasher. My sincere sympathies to the Coffey family. I have not seen Bob for a very long time but what I do remember is how much he enjoyed life.

*My condolences,

I am very sad over the lost of Bob, he was a wonderful person and a great family friend to all of us. We had a blast at Lebanon Valley drag racing his Blur Ramble. RIP Bob until we meet again. Rita
