

Mrs Ruth Rosenberg

July 1, 1929 - October 7, 2017

Ruth Sidransky Rosenberg, born July 1, 1929 to Mary and Ben Sidransky, and died October 7th at 4 pm with her son Mark Hyman and her daughter in law Mia Lux Koning at her side at Berkshire Medical Center. She was born in Brooklyn to deaf parents and grew up in Brooklyn and the Bronx. She went to Hunter College in Manhattan, and graduated Phi Beta Kappa and went on to become a teacher. In 1949, she married Saul Hyman and left for Europe where they lived in Vienna, Munich and Barcelona for 11 years. She was the co-founder and principal of the American School of Barcelona. In 1967, she married Richard Rosenberg and moved to Toronto with her children Mark and Carrie Hyman. Ruth was a lifelong student with a rich life of the mind and a deep love for her family, reading and writing. In 1990, she published the book In Silence about growing up hearing in a deaf family. She is survived by her son Mark. Her daughter Carrie died in 2012. And by her grandchildren, Rachel, Misha, Ben and Sarah. She deeply loved her family and was there for them, always. And by her brother and sister in law, Fred and Gina Sidransky and her niece Claudia Sidransky, and her brother and sister in law Lewis and Vera Rosenberg. And she is predeceased by her husband Richard Rosenberg. The funeral service will be at Knesset Israel in Pittsfield, MA at 11 am on Wednesday, October 11, 2017.

Previous Events

Service

OCT 11. 11:00 AM - 12:00 PM (ET)

Knesset Isreal
Pittsfield, MA 01201

Tribute Wall

TP

“ We shared laughter and joyful times We also shared the pain of losing children Ruth was so special and I will always miss her

---

Tobi and Allan Press - October 16, 2017 at 02:43 PM

DL

“ Dear Mark and Family,
I was saddened to read of your mother's death.
Please accept my deepest sympathy.
Dian Litster

---

Dian Litster - October 10, 2017 at 12:18 PM