March 2, 1956 - October 10, 2023

Susan T. Haugh, 67, of Lenox, died Tuesday at her home.

“ Susan, my beautiful bbf, your smile, love and kindness will always be with me. My heart is saddened and broken, you left me and your loved ones too soon...Its been a slow emotional week, it's just so surreal. I am so glad I have so many memories, I will see you there, my friend. I will never 'pinky swear' with another person ...promise.

“ My heart breaks for all of you during this difficult time. Your mother was one-of-a-kind. May you all find light in remembering her beautiful spirit and how much she loved you all.

Susan,

Dance your way to heaven.

Know that you will be mourned and missed, no one can replace you, that you have loved and are beloved.

Our lives intertwined since high school and then partners in our beautiful hand made gift store "Nimble Fingers" in Larchmont NY.

Your grace, smile and spirit always comforting. Your effervescent nature and laughter uplifting.

Move beyond form, flowing like water, feeding on sunlight and moonlight, radiant as the stars in the night sky.

With blessings and Love,

Linda Haugh-Sposato and Family

“ Susan,(souix), what a beautiful soul. I will cherish the memories we shared for most of our lives . Susan loved unconditionally. She would never see the shadows of others .
As a young girl , she loved dance , drawing, she ran track and dreamed about falling in love and having a big family .
We explored and shared many adventures as teenagers car trips to montreal , the Hamptons in her mustang we often went without a plan ,
. She loved hot curlers and getting ready for fun in the dance clubs .
We often had late night phone calls about cheating boyfriends.
When her dream came true she had her four beautiful children . She was never happier . She soon became a single mom . She struggled with four babies but never complained .
Finding the beauty of nature ,
Her strong faith in god and family tradition as her solace
Her life lead her many places she was an explorer with an open heart . (sometimes that got on the way of her decision making , unfortunately not everyone is a pure soul .)
But my friend was . A pure soul with light and love . My deepest sympathies to her children and grandchildren
Rest easy my friend 💙

“ Stacey and Vicky and family,

I was so saddened to hear of your Mom's passing. I remember when she booked a trip for me and my family to Disney World, she was almost as excited as we were. That's how I will remember her as so caring and ready for the next adventure. She had great pride and loved you all so much it was obvious to all who knew her. I will miss seeing her smiling face out shopping, and her gentle voice which was so unique to her, I can still hear it now. I am grateful I knew Susan. You were all blessed with a great Mom.

*My condolences,

“ Susan was my Big Sister.

I have known Susan since I was nine years of age when she began dating my brother who she married after 13 years of dating.

Because of their long history she was always there when I was growing up for every holiday, celebration and the like. I have a lifetime of memories of her, and was deeply saddened by her passing.

She was always so full of life. She had a deep love for the arts. As a young girl she studied ballet and was on her way to becoming a professional until her mother passed away suddenly when she was young. They were so very close, and I believe that shaped Susan's life going forward in many ways. My mother took her under her wing from that day forward and loved her like she was her own. My mother already had six children, but she included Susan in everything--she was number seven, and was one of the family from that point onward.

When we would go out for a family dinner (which was rare--different times) My father, a frugal man, would cringe because Susan would order her meal and then decide she was no longer that hungry when it came. My father loved her, and only she could get away with that with him. The rest of us had to finish everything.

She attended Our Lady Of Good Counsel Academy with my sister Linda. They were the same age. I followed afterward. I used to visit her there with the anticipation of following in their footsteps so eagerly. Susan would give me tours of the school and I felt very privileged about that.

Susan and my brother Robert took me everywhere with them: too many adventures to count, but I became a great bowler because of them taking me bowling on a regular basis. When I became an adult Susan was my great confidant and we shared many deep conversations over the years that shaped my life. We were roommates in a beautiful apartment in Mamaroneck for a time--it was quite fun. I was one of her bridesmaids in her wedding. When my brother Kenneth became terminally ill she was a huge support. She loved him dearly. I always remarked to them on how they were both so similar. They were both Pisces and their personalities reflected that: they both shared great passion for all of the arts. I remember Susan deciding to add some community theatre in NY to her resume. I went to every performance. She knocked it out of the park, and I was in awe of her great natural talent.

We traveled together. She was clever: she decided to get her travel agent's license in order to travel inexpensively. We took a trip to Hawaii just three weeks after her giving birth to her first daughter Stacey. Only Susan could pull off wearing a white bikini just after giving birth and look sensational--she was the envy of every woman! (She would love that I mentioned that). She had a presence when she walked into a room. Everyone noticed her. She had an innate flair for fashion and could put together quite an outfit. And of course she did love to shop. I was glad to borrow her clothes with which she was always generous.

Susan was unique, full of life and laughter, and wanted the best for everyone.

She was a woman of deep faith. Susan had a very laid-back demeanor and had a way of always making you smile. With Susan everything would be O.K. and work out in the end. It was one of her gifts. Although life separated us in our later years I will miss her greatly. I loved her. I loved becoming the little sister she never had and will cherish that forever.

My deepest condolences to my nieces, nephews, great-nieces and great-nephews. I wish you all peace, comfort and healing during this very difficult time and every day forward.

Susan, you had so much loss throughout your life, so may you now be enjoying your eternal blessing in heaven with your mother, father, brothers (Doug & Kenneth), your niece Tani, aunts, family and friends. You are very loved and made us all smile from a place in our hearts which only you could do.

May God bless you always,

Love,

Your little sister,

Stephanie
