

W. Tillar Shugg

September 10, 2013

W. Tillar Shugg, formerly of Pittsfield, passed away in Spring Hill, Florida on September 10, 2013 at age 95. Born in Schenectady, N.Y., he was the son of Livingston and Charlotte Shugg, Tillar served in the Navy during the Second World War. In 1950 he married Pittsfield native Eileen M. Perry. They celebrated their 63rd anniversary at their home in Timber Pines, Spring Hill, Fla. this year. In 1986 Tillar Shugg published the Handbook of Electrical and Electronic Insulating Materials in cooperation with the Institute of Electrical and Electronics Engineering, Inc. of New York. The Handbook was revised in 1995, and remains available in electronic form as the classic compendium of its kind. Tillar Shugg is survived by his wife, Eileen; his son, Paul W. Shugg; daughter-in-law, Robin; grandsons, Jason and Eric, all of Oradell, New Jersey; and his nieces and nephew, Nancy Warner, Jeanne Penvenne, Eileen Penvenne and Perry Penvenne, all formerly of Lenox; and by many grand and great grand-nieces and nephews. FUNERAL NOTICE: Tillar Shugg will be buried at St. Ann's Cemetery in Lenox on Saturday, Oct. 26, 2013 through ROCHE FUNERAL HOME in Lenox.
